Man arrested for passing counterfeit bills

Wednesday, August 6, 2008
Caddo deputies arrested a Shreveport man for passing counterfeit money.

Christopher T. McKnight, 27, of the 500 block of Janet, was arrested by Detective James Lewis for forgery after he used counterfeit $100 bills to purchase a keyboard valued at more than $2,000.

At the time of his arrest, McKnight was already in jail for using counterfeit bills at an area convenience store.