Man arrested for threatening judge, court officials

Monday, May 6, 2013

Caddo Sheriff's detectives arrested a Shreveport man over the weekend for threatening several court officials, including a judge, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

On May 1, David Allen Mann II was attending a class for chemical dependency at Juvenile Court. Mann became upset and made threats regarding the officials to a counselor. The officials were not present at the time.

On Saturday, Sheriff's Detective Michael Price located Mann at the Stoner Avenue boat launch and arrested him without incident. Mann, 30, of the 1100 block of Runningbrook Drive, was booked into the Caddo Correctional Center for threating a public official. His bond is set at $1,000,287.
