

Caddo Sheriff to host AARP safe driving course

Monday, February 24, 2014

Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator is hosting an AARP safe driving course designed especially for drivers age 50 and older.

The course is a four-hour refresher that may qualify participants for an automobile premium reduction or discount. It will be held from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. on Friday, March 7, at the Northwest Regional Re-Entry Facility, 1125 Forum Drive. AARP charges a fee of $15 for AARP members and $20 for non-members. Lunch is provided.

Class size is limited and pre-registration is required before March 5. To register, contact Community Programs Deputy Claire Crawford at 681-0869 or Deputy Edith Pinkston at 681-0875.

