

4 arrested on drug charges in southeast Shreveport

Monday, April 28, 2014

Four people were arrested on drug charges after a search warrant was executed on Keysburg Court in Norris Ferry Landing subdivision this past week, said Sheriff Steve Prator and Police Chief Willie Shaw.

On April 23, agents with the Caddo-Shreveport Narcotics Unit recovered approximately 29 grams of suspected meth from Trenton Belgard, the homeowner at 10501 Keysburg Court. Belgard, 45, was arrested for possession of schedule II (meth) with intent to distribute.

While on the scene, three people arrived at the residence to purchase suspected meth. Jacob Trosclair, Leslie Robertson, and Jackie Watson were all taken into custody.

At the time of their arrests, Trosclair was in possession of suspected meth, while Robertson and Watson were in possession of a small amount of marijuana, a handgun, and a muzzle loader rifle.

Trosclair, 23, of the 8000 block of Amy Hewes Drive, was arrested for attempted possession of schedule II (meth) and possession of schedule II (meth). Robertson, 37, of the 2900 block of Millard Street, and Watson, 43, of Texarkana, Texas, were both arrested for attempted possession of schedule II (meth), possession of schedule I (marijuana), and illegal carrying of a weapon with CDS.

All were booked into Caddo Correctional Center.
