Two men are in jail charged with multiple car break-ins in North Park Subdivision.

The burglaries occurred in the early morning hours on Monday, July 7. Thieves entered five unlocked cars and stole electronic equipment and a purse containing personal checks.

Caddo Sheriff's Detectives Stacy Cowgill and Kay Ward arrested the two men after one of the suspects used his own driver's license and thumbprint to cash a forged check at a local bank.

Arrested were Nick Lococo, 18, of the 6700 block of North Park Circle and Jeffrey McClain, 19, of the 6800 block of North Colony Drive. Both were charged with five counts of simpler burglary. In addition, Lococo was charged with one count of contributing to the delinquency of a minor, and McClain was charged with one count of forgery.

Both men are in the Caddo Correctional Center.
