

Blanchard couple arrested for distributing marijuana

Thursday, October 9, 2014

The Caddo-Shreveport Narcotics Unit arrested a Blanchard couple for distributing marijuana, said Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator and Shreveport Police Chief Willie Shaw.

On October 7, agents assisted by the Caddo Parish Sheriff's Office Patrol Division and K-9 Unit, conducted a search of 6957 N. Colony Drive - the home of Joseph Green and Kalynn Debusk. During the search, agents located $12,939 in cash and 164 grams of high-grade marijuana.

Further investigation led agents to 3745 N. Market where a vehicle belonging to Green was searched and 1,329 grams of high-grade marijuana was located.

The total street value of narcotics in both locations was $37,325.

Green, 23, was arrested for Possession with Intent to Distribute Schedule I (marijuana), Possession of Schedule I (second offense), and Possession of Schedule I (hash).

Debusk, 24, was arrested for Possession with Intent to Distribute Schedule I (marijuana).
