

Suspect sought for crimes against juveniles

Friday, October 10, 2014

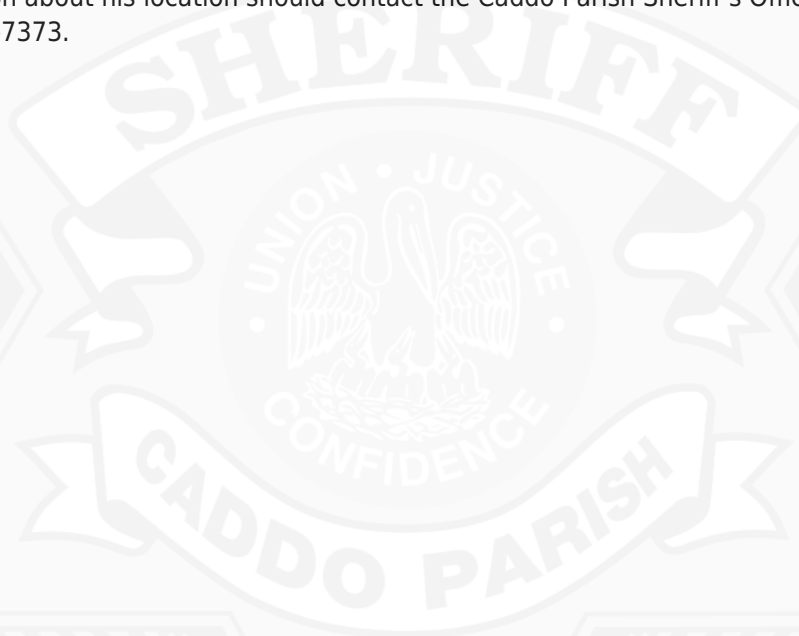

The Caddo Parish Sheriff's Office is asking for the public's help in locating Hunter Boone, a suspect in a criminal investigation, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

Boone, 19, is wanted for providing marijuana to juveniles, sexually assaulting a juvenile, and making inappropriate sexual remarks to a juvenile.

Sheriff's Detective Dorothy Brooks Carter obtained a warrant for Boone's arrest on charges of contributing to the delinquency of juveniles, aggravated crime against nature, and indecent behavior with a juvenile.

Boone's last known address is the 300 block of Phelps Street in Shreveport. He is a white male, 5'4, 130 lbs., with blue eyes and reddish-blond hair.

Anyone with information about his location should contact the Caddo Parish Sheriff's Office at 675-2170 or Crime Stoppers at 673-7373.
