

CPSO seeks two men for burglary

Friday, December 5, 2014

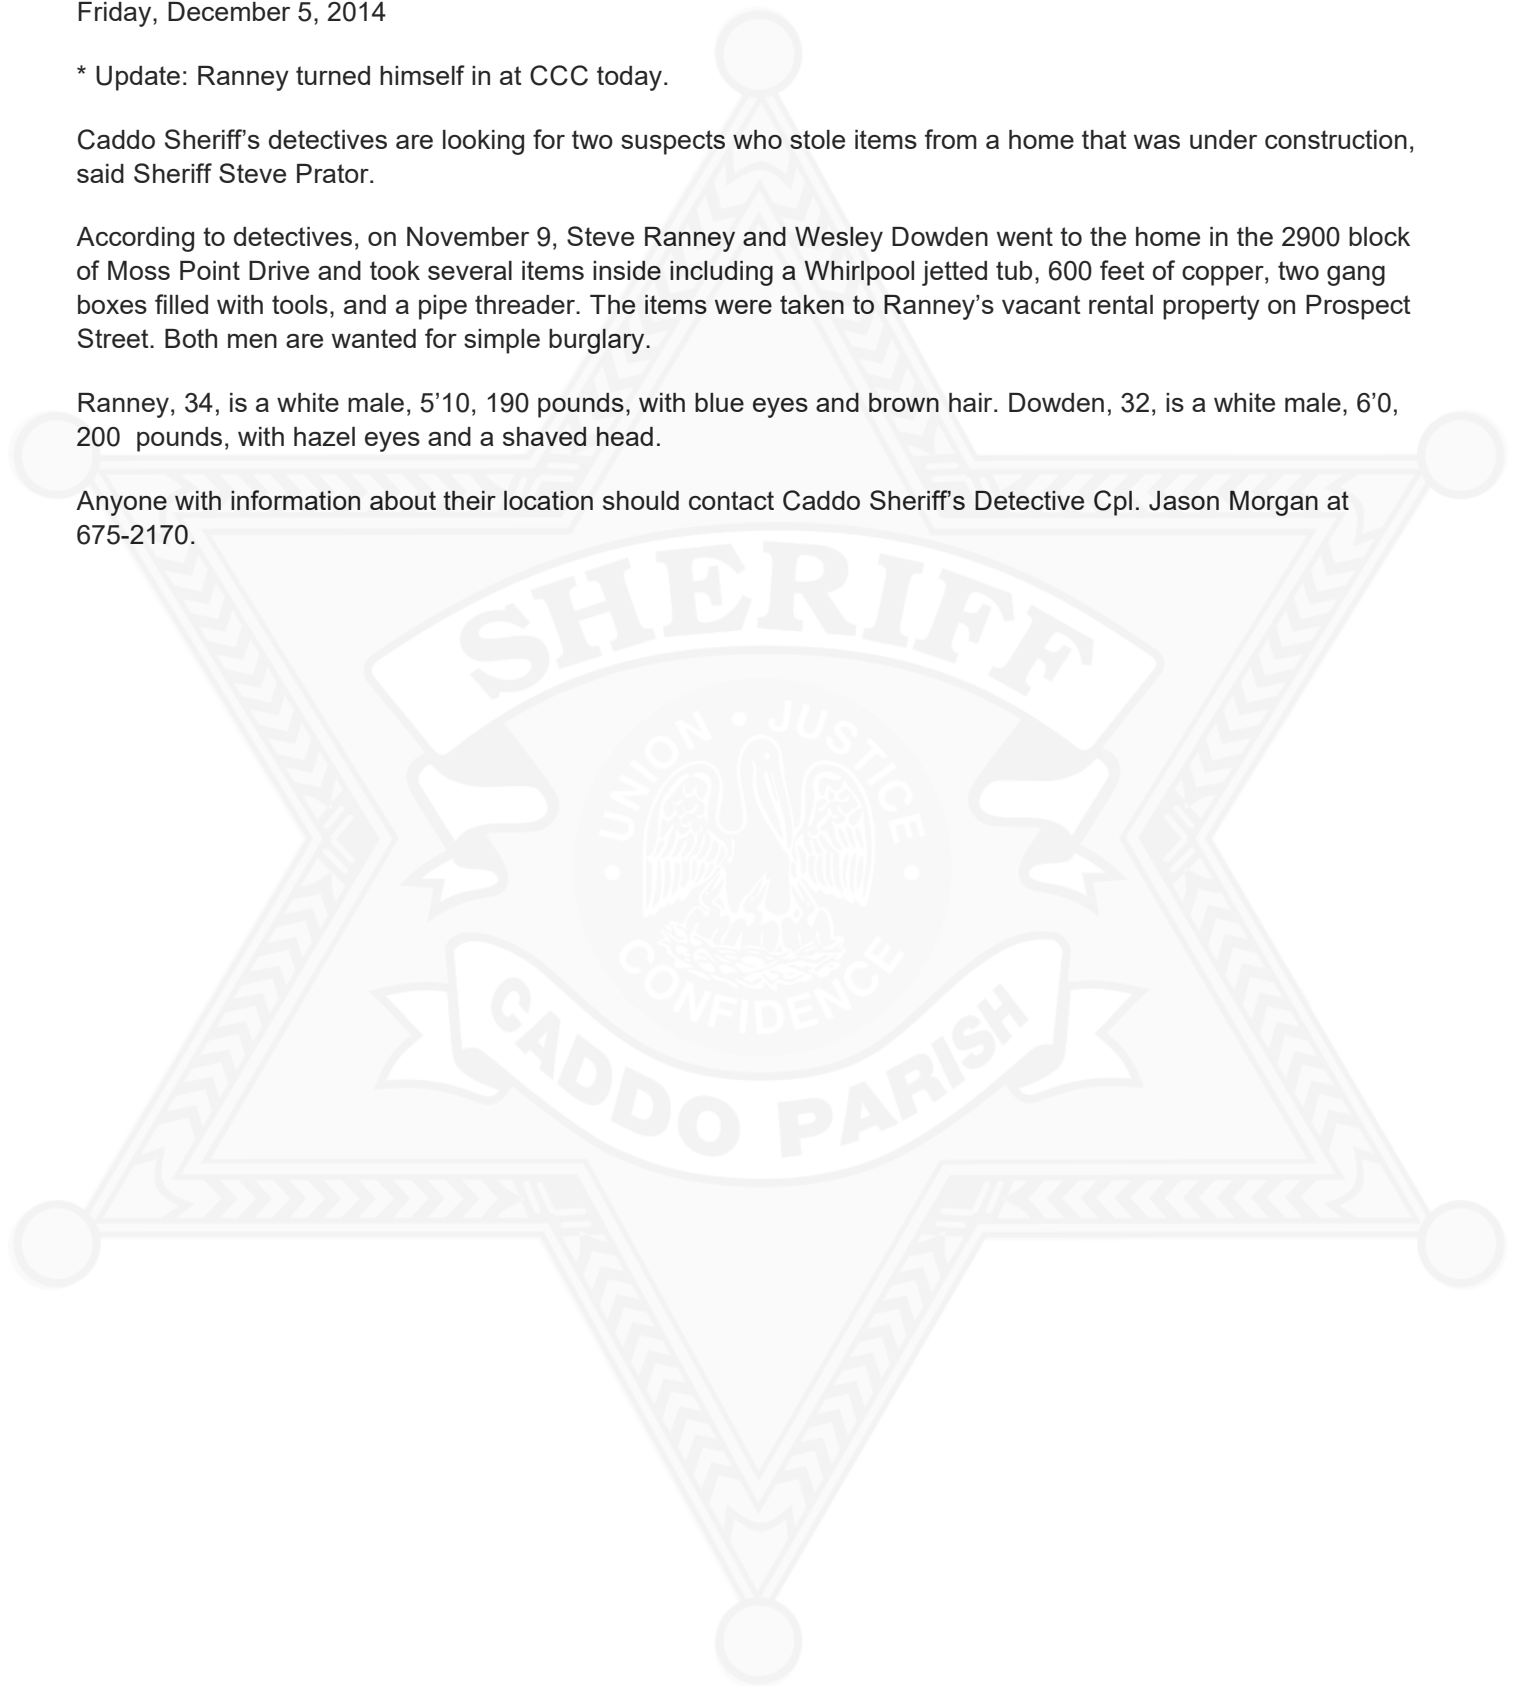

* Update: Ranney turned himself in at CCC today.

Caddo Sheriff's detectives are looking for two suspects who stole items from a home that was under construction, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

According to detectives, on November 9, Steve Ranney and Wesley Dowden went to the home in the 2900 block of Moss Point Drive and took several items inside including a Whirlpool jetted tub, 600 feet of copper, two gang boxes filled with tools, and a pipe threader. The items were taken to Ranney's vacant rental property on Prospect Street. Both men are wanted for simple burglary.

Ranney, 34, is a white male, 5'10, 190 pounds, with blue eyes and brown hair. Dowden, 32, is a white male, 6'0, 200 pounds, with hazel eyes and a shaved head.

Anyone with information about their location should contact Caddo Sheriff's Detective Cpl. Jason Morgan at 675-2170.
