

Sheriff Prator to swear in auxiliary deputies

Monday, December 8, 2014

Graduation for the Caddo Sheriff's Office Auxiliary Deputy Program will be at 6 p.m. Monday, December 15, at Sheriff's Safety Town, 8910 Jewella Ave.

Graduates are Kristina Kay Andrews, Linda Sue Effinger, Elizabeth F. Harris, Rickey R. Horton Sr., Kimberly Diana Hay, Larry Johnson, and Cheryl Sue Stills.

Auxiliary deputies supplement full-time Caddo sheriff's deputies by volunteering their services to the Sheriff's Office and community in a non-enforcement capacity. Graduates were required to complete 72 hours of classroom instruction and 40 hours on patrol with a line deputy to complete the program.

For more information about becoming an auxiliary deputy, contact Cpl. Carl Wilkinson at 681-1121.

