

CPSO seeks suspects in armed robbery

Tuesday, December 9, 2014

Caddo Sheriff's detectives are looking for three men that tazed a female employee at the Relay Station and stole her purse, said Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator.

The robbery occurred around 10 p.m. on Saturday, December 6, at 9110 Hwy. 79 South in Bethany. Three men entered the business and zapped the employee in the arm and stomach before stealing her purse and running away. The woman did not require medical attention.

The suspects are black males. One was dressed in a gray GAP hoodie, one in a gold Tigers hoodie, and the other in a black letterman's jacket.

Anyone with information regarding the suspects' identities or locations should contact Det. Jason Morgan at 675-2170.
