Man arrested for obscenity

Wednesday, July 30, 2008
Caddo deputies arrested a man on obscenity charges over the weekend after he exposed himself to three women and a child.

Ronnie Dale Goodman Jr., 32, was arrested on Saturday and booked into the Caddo Correctional Center for obscenity, disturbing the peace and simple criminal property damage.

Deputies said Goodman was at a bonfire party on Shady Oak Lane in Keithville with a large group of people when he approached the women and child, made an inappropriate remark, dropped his pants, and exposed himself to them. He then left the party and went home.

Goodman was taken into custody at his residence at 13485 Shady Oak. While being transported to jail he kicked the window of the patrol unit causing damage it the window.