Two more ID theft suspects turn themselves in

Wednesday, April 29, 2015

Two more suspects in a million-dollar identity theft case have turned themselves in to authorities.

On Friday, Michael Gillenwater and Georgiana Wright were booked at the Caddo Correctional Center. Both were arrested on warrants charging them with one count each of identity theft and criminal conspiracy.

During booking, Gillenwater, 32, listed an address of the 6800 block of Jefferson Paige Road and Wright, 21, listed an address of the 3600 block of Dee Street.

Five suspects remain at large.

Original release from 4/29:

Herman James Frazier, 33, of the 4400 block of Denny R. Wimberly, turned himself in at the Caddo-Shreveport Financial Crimes Office today. Marcus Roshun Johnson, 33, of Addison, Texas, and Otha Lee Johnson Jr., 33, of the 2700 block of Lindholm, turned themselves in at the Caddo Correctional Center. All were booked on warrants charging them with identity theft and criminal conspiracy.

The warrants were announced by Sheriff Prator on Tuesday along with details of a two-year investigation into stolen identities that were used to set up fraudulent service accounts locally.

One other person, Valerie Nichols, is already in jail.
