Caddo Sheriff to hold auxiliary graduation

Monday, June 15, 2015

Graduation for the Caddo Sheriff's Office Auxiliary Deputy Class #32 will be at 6 p.m. Tuesday, June 16, at Sheriff's Safety Town, 8910 Jewella Ave.

Graduates are John Adger, Paul M. Clark, Jr., Douglas E. Fischer, Jr., Edward T. Grappe, Henry A. Kellogg, Marcel Livesay, Linda Munyon, Clifton B. Sosbee, Horace W. Taylor, and Le'Terrence S. Williams. Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator will swear in the graduates.

Auxiliary deputies supplement full-time Caddo sheriff's deputies by volunteering their services to the Sheriff's Office and community in a non-enforcement capacity. Graduates were required to complete 72 hours of classroom instruction and 40 hours on patrol with a full-time deputy to complete the program.
