Felony suspect turns himself in to Sheriff's Office

Tuesday, June 23, 2015

Update:

Kevin Michael Page turned himself in yesterday, June 22, at the Caddo Correctional Center on a warrant charging him with felony unauthorized use of a movable. (See original news release below.) Following an interview with Caddo Sheriff's Detective Donnie Laney, Page was also charged with felony theft for stealing a trailer valued at $16,000 from an Ellerbe Road well site on August 20, 2014, and felony theft of oil and gas equipment for stealing oil field batteries valued at $1,500 from a Hwy. 169 South well site on January 15, 2015.

Original news release dated June 15, 2015:

The Caddo Sheriff's Office is asking for the public's help in locating Kevin Michael Page, who is wanted for felony unauthorized use of a moveable.

Authorities discovered a stolen Terix AL500 plant light valued at $14,000 at Page's home in Waskom, Texas in January. The equipment was reported stolen from a Chesapeake Energy well site on Ellerbe Road in 2014.

Page is a 30-year-old white male, 5'10, 265 lbs., with brown hair and brown eyes.

Anyone with information about his location is asked to contact Caddo Sheriff's Det. Donnie Laney at 675-2170 or 681-0700, or Caddo-Shreveport Crime Stoppers at 673-7373.
