Caddo deputy named 40-8 Louisiana Law Officer of the Year

Monday, July 20, 2015

Caddo Sheriff's Lt. Richard Corbett was honored as Louisiana's 40 and 8 Law Officer of the Year Sunday at the organization's Grand Promenade in Lafayette.

Corbett was selected from nominees throughout the state after receiving the local Law Officer of the Year Award for Voiture Locale 137 in Shreveport in March.

Corbett is a 19-year veteran of the Sheriff's Office and currently serves as director of Sheriff's Safety Town. He is the vice-president of the Southern Hills Business Association and Lt. Governor of the Kiwanis La-Miss-Tenn Division 9. He is past president of the Rotary Club of South Shreveport and Kiwanis Club of Southern Hills, a former member of the Junior League Advisory Board, and a current member of the Sons of the American Revolution.

Corbett also serves as a district representative on the LA Sheriff's Pension and Relief Fund and is a peer counselor on the Caddo Sheriff's Office Critical Incident Stress Management Team.
