

Caddo SO investigates fatal wreck

Wednesday, December 19, 2007

Caddo Sheriff's deputies are investigating a fatal car crash that occurred just after 2 p.m. on LA Hwy. 169 north of Devers Road.

Deputies say a Toyota Tacoma pickup was traveling southbound when its driver lost control in a curve, drove off the road, and hit a tree. The truck then caught on fire.

Only one person was in the vehicle, and he was pronounced dead at the scene. No name has been released.

The accident is still under investigation by the Sheriff's Traffic Safety Unit.
