Texarkana men arrested on drug charges

Tuesday, October 4, 2016

Agents with the Caddo-Shreveport Narcotics Task Force arrested three men following an investigation into drug activity in Mira, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

On Thursday, agents went to 16724 Old Atlanta Mira Road where they contacted Eric Floyd, Reginald Dodd, and Tarence Evans, all of Texarkana, Arkansas. Agents found Floyd attempting to hide a large amount of methamphetamine in a container filled with liquid. Agents also discovered Dodd and Evans in possession of small amounts of marijuana. Approximately 58 grams of methamphetamine and five grams of marijuana were seized.

All three men were arrested and transported to the Caddo Correctional Center. Floyd, 31, was charged with possession of methamphetamine with intent to distribute. Dodd, 40, was charged with possession of marijuana, second offense, and Evans, 42, was charged with possession of marijuana.
