Caddo SO seeks woman for bank fraud

Thursday, June 29, 2017
UPDATE: Do was arrested today in Bossier Parish.

Original Release: The Caddo Sheriff's Office is asking for the public's help in locating Vivian Kimonah Do, 43, who is wanted for bank fraud.

In early May, Do and a male counterpart schemed to negotiate three checks on closed bank accounts at Wesla Federal Credit Union. The total value of the checks was $1,825.

The male, Ronald Daily, 56, was arrested later that month and is now in jail.
Caddo Sheriff's Det. Casey Jones obtained a warrant for Do's arrest.

Do is 5'4, 100 lbs., with black hair and brown eyes. She has an Arlington, Texas, address but could be in the Peach Street area of Shreveport and is known to frequent Shreveport casinos.

Anyone with information regarding her whereabouts is urged to contact Det. Jones at 675-2170 or Crime Stoppers at 673-7373.
