Oil City man arrested on multiple charges involving juveniles

Wednesday, July 12, 2017

An Oil City man was arrested for improper behavior with juveniles, according to Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator.

William Entrekin, 60, was arrested on Tuesday following an investigation by Detective Jared Marshall of the CPSO Youth Services Division. Marshall investigated allegations that Entrekin was involved in sexual activity with a child under the age of 13 for the past several years and also that he was involved in similar activity with a 15-year-old girl that occurred in early 2000.

An arrest warrant was obtained for Entrekin on charges of Aggravated Rape, Molestation of a Juvenile when the victim is under 13, Molestation of a Juvenile when incidents recur during a period of more than 1 year, Indecent Behavior with Juveniles, and Felony Carnal Knowledge of a Juvenile.

Entrekin was booked into the Caddo Correctional Center. Bond was set at $1,250,000.
