Wednesday, October 11, 2017

Two people have been arrested for robbing a man at gunpoint on Wells Island Road in September, said Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator.

Jennifer Washington, 21, and LilBrian West, 21, were arrested by the U.S. Marshal's Task Force on felony warrants obtained by Caddo Sheriff's Detective Chris Daniel. Both Washington and West were booked into the Caddo Correctional Center for armed robbery. In addition, West faces a charge of being a felon in possession of firearm.

According to Daniel, Washington and the victim have a child together. On September 29, the victim left East Algonquin Street with Washington under the pretense of seeing the child. Washington drove the victim to a dead-end street in the 1200 block of Wells Island Road. When she turned the vehicle around, West emerged from the woods, and Washington stopped her car. The victim was then robbed at gunpoint. Afterward, Washington drove the victim back to East Algonquin Street.

On October 5, Daniel obtained an arrest warrant for Washington with a bond of $75,000. She was arrested the same day on Prospect Street.

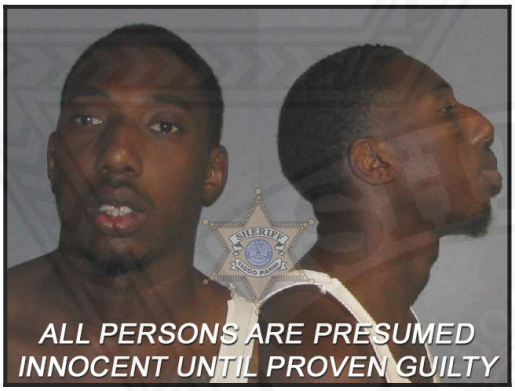

On October 9, Daniel obtained an arrest warrant for West with a $500,000 bond. He was arrested the following day at a residence on Audrey Lane.
