Nurse arrested for theft

Monday, February 12, 2018

A home health nurse was arrested on Friday for stealing from the couple who employed her, said Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator.

Crystal Coleman, 32, of Vivian, is accused of stealing over $5,600 in cash, a coin jar, and a gift card while working as a nurse for the victim and her disabled husband.

Caddo Sheriff's Detective Andy Scoggins arrested Coleman following an interview at the CPSO Criminal Investigations Division. She was booked into the Caddo Correctional Center for felony theft.

Attachments

