Update: Are you missing a goat?

Monday, February 12, 2018

Update: Rowdy's owner has been located. We are told he escaped from the backyard of another residence on Dianne Street about a half-mile away. A friend of the owner saw our post on Facebook. The owner and Rowdy will soon be reunited.

The Caddo Sheriff's Office Livestock Patrol picked up this stray goat today in the 5800 block of Dianne Street in Shreveport. He was wearing a heart-shaped tag with the name "Rowdy" on it.

Contact the Caddo Sheriff's Office at 681-1120 for more information. If the owner is not located, the goat will be sold at auction.

Attachments

