Teen charged with attempted murder of mother

Saturday, February 17, 2018

A 19-year-old man is in jail today charged with stabbing his mother and her boyfriend, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

At 7:15 p.m. Friday, Caddo Sheriff's deputies responded to a suspicious circumstances call at 8325 Still Meadow where a woman was badly cut with a knife. Upon arrival, Caddo Fire District #4 was on scene treating Michelle Wright, 46, and Allen Meshell, 44. Deputies learned they had been stabbed by Wright's son, Dustin Eschenbach, upon returning home.

Wright was transported to University Health with critical injuries. Meshell was treated at the scene. Patrol deputies located Eschenbach nearby at a relative's house. He was arrested by Detective Keith Fox for attempted second-degree murder and aggravated battery and was booked into the Caddo Correctional Center.
