Four men arrested for theft

Four men were arrested for stealing over $11,000 through fraudulent money order transactions, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

The Caddo Sheriff's Office was contacted by the owners of Super S convenience store on Roy Road earlier this month after they realized the store had not taken in enough cash to account for the amount of money orders that had been sold. After an investigation, it was determined that a store employee, Albert Taylor, 20, had given money orders to friends, often for several hundred dollars each, but only received a few dollars at a time in exchange.

Sheriff's Detective Doug Smith said the thefts had been ongoing since February while money orders were given away in increments of $400 to $900. The total amount stolen from the business was $11,274.

Quincy J. Armstrong, 22, George Devlynn Washington, 19, and Rayfield J. Washington, 22, were identified as receiving money orders from Taylor. All four men, who reside in Shreveport, were arrested for theft and booked into the Caddo Correctional Center.
