Woman arrested for felony theft

Thursday, July 5, 2018

A Shreveport woman was arrested this week for stealing several thousand dollars from her employer, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

On Tuesday, July 2, Sheriff's Det. Jeremy Edward was contacted about an internal theft at Wal-Mart at 1645 East Bert Kouns. Kayla Baker, a store employee, was caught on video stealing money from the cash register on numerous occasions. Baker is accused of stealing $4,544.

She was booked into the Caddo Correctional Center for Felony Theft.
