Shreveport man charged with more crimes against juveniles

Thursday, August 30, 2018

A Shreveport man who is in jail for sex crimes involving juveniles is now facing additional charges after an investigation by the Caddo Sheriff's Office, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

Christopher Salone, 24, of the 1500 block of Grigsby Street, was originally arrested on August 12 by the Shreveport Police Department for first-degree rape and molestation of a juvenile under the age of 13. The crimes involved two juvenile victims.

Information about a possible third victim in the parish was provided by SPD to the Caddo Sheriff's Office, and an investigation was initiated by Sheriff's Detective Jared Marshall. On August 23, Marshall obtained an arrest warrant charging Salone with indecent behavior involving a girl under the age of 10. Salone was still in jail when the third charge was added.

He remains in Caddo Correctional Center today under $225,000 bond.
