

Caddo Sheriff to host women's firearms class

Friday, February 8, 2019

The Caddo Sheriff's Office will hold a women's firearms class from 8 a.m. until noon on Saturday, February 23, at the Sheriff's Regional Training Academy.

The class is for female shooters who have some experience with firearms. Fundamental drills, movement, and marksmanship will be the topics covered.

Participants will need 100 rounds of ammunition, a holster or purse that is their common method of carry. If carrying in a purse there will need to be an integrated holster in the purse or a trigger guard cover.

The class is free and limited to 12 students. Call Deputy Andrea Claiborne at 681-0735 to register.

