Man arrested for illegally using company credit card

Wednesday, May 22, 2019

A Shreveport man was arrested for felony theft for using a company credit card for personal benefit, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

Robert Welborn, 29, was booked into Caddo Correctional Center today following an interview with Caddo Sheriff's Detective Mike King.

The theft was reported to the Caddo-Shreveport Financial Crimes Task Force by Welborn's former employer after it was discovered that he had charged over $4,500 without permission. Welborn acknowledged using the card for tools and personal bills.
