

CADDO PARISH TO CONDUCT ONLINE TAX SALE ON JUNE 4

Thursday, May 23, 2019

On Tuesday, June 4, the Caddo Parish Sheriff will host their annual tax sale online at CivicSource.com. The auction opens at 8:00 a.m. and closes at 8:00 p.m., subject to a sliding close. Over 2,000 properties are slated for auction, ranging from $291 to $96,027. The sale is open to the public, and registration is free.

The auction price is fixed at tax, interest, costs and other impositions due, so instead of competitive price bidding, ownership interest in property is bid down. The winning bid is the least percent ownership bid on any property. Winning bidders receive tax title certificates, an interest-bearing investment returning five percent and one percent per month until paid. If not repaid within three years, the purchaser receives property ownership in the amount equal to percent bid at auction, subject to the taxes being paid.

Delinquent taxpayers have until 5:00 p.m. on June 3, 2019 to pay any outstanding tax bills to keep their property out of the sale.

For a complete listing of properties slated for the 2019 tax sale, visit CivicSource.com/CaddoParish. An information session about tax title sales will be held on Thursday, May 30, 2019, at 6:30 p.m. CDT. The event is free and open to the public and will be held at the Shreve Memorial Library, located at 424 Texas Street in Shreveport.

For more information on the Louisiana tax title sale process or to view upcoming auctions, visit CivicSource.com.