Woman charged with stealing from pizza restaurant

Thursday, October 3, 2019

An employee of a local pizza restaurant is charged with stealing over $8,300 from the business, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

Ashlynn Cargill, 22, of Bossier City, was arrested by Sheriff's Detective Mike King following an investigation into two incidents at Johnny's Pizza. Cargill is accused of taking $2,000 before leaving work at the Colquitt Road restaurant on September 27. Three days later, she snuck into the restaurant office on Youree Drive and stole $6,380.

Cargill was booked into Caddo Correctional Center for theft and simple burglary.
