Two Shreveport men arrested for crimes involving juveniles

Wednesday, May 13, 2020

A 33-year-old Shreveport man was arrested today for indecent behavior with a juvenile, said Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator.

Dustin Henderson, 33, of the 7100 block of Jeanette Lane, is accused of exposing himself and showing pornography to three juvenile girls, ages 8, 10, and 11.

Henderson was arrested and booked into Caddo Correctional Center on a warrant obtained by Cpl. Ray Saunders for three counts of indecent behavior with juveniles.

In an unrelated case, Jared L. Hudnall Jr., of Crest Drive in Shreveport, was arrested for felony carnal knowledge of a juvenile.

Hudnall, who is 26, is accused of having a sexual relationship with a 16-year-old girl. The relationship started when the girl was 15. Hudnall turned himself in to authorities on May 5.

The case was investigated by Det. Jared Marshall.
