On Friday, May 22, at 4:19 a.m. three males wearing hoodies and masks entered the Triple J at 8311 Springridge Road, Keithville and stole e-cigarette vapor pens.

Caddo Parish Sheriff's Office patrol deputies investigated the case and the three males were later identified. Two of them, ages 17 and 15, have been arrested.

The 17-year-old male was arrested for misdemeanor theft and released to a parent.

Meanwhile, the 15-year-old suspect in the Triple J theft was also found to be involved with the theft of four vehicles from SkyLynn Farms at 6911 Vardman Road that were stolen on different days between April 26 and May 12.

The 15-year-old was charged with one count of misdemeanor theft and four counts of motor vehicle theft. He was booked into the Caddo Parish Juvenile Detention Center.

During the investigation, CPSO Detective Vincent Jackson also questioned 18-year-old Nicholas Paddie. Paddie admitted to driving two suspects to the site where the four vehicles were stolen.

Paddie has been arrested and booked into Caddo Correctional Center charged with four counts of accessory to motor vehicle theft.
