Man arrested with gun on school campus

Wednesday, September 2, 2020

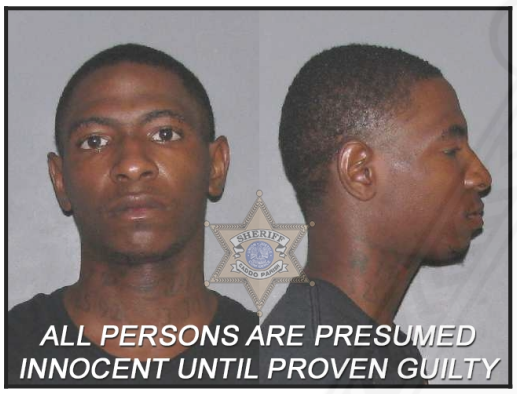

A Vivian man was arrested carrying a gun on the North Caddo High School campus on Tuesday, said Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator.

Sheriff's Deputy Tony Dickey, who is a School Resource Officer at the school, noticed a suspicious male walking on school property. Dickey knew the man was not a student at the school and also noticed a bulge under his shirt at his waistband. Dickey approached the man and found a handgun concealed under his shirt.

Marcus Douglas, 23, was arrested for carrying a firearm on school property and illegal carrying of weapons. He was booked into the Caddo Correctional Center.

Dickey said Douglas was cutting across school property as a short cut to a neighboring apartment complex.
