Arrest made in storage locker break-in

Wednesday, October 14, 2020

A Keithville man is charged with breaking into a storage unit and stealing thousands of dollars in property, said Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator.

The break-in occurred October 7 in the 7800 block of Shrevepark Drive where the door to a storage unit was kicked in and destroyed. Approximately $9,100 worth of high-end clothing, tennis shoes, and other items were stolen. Additionally, damage to the unit was valued at over $2,000.

An investigation by Sheriff's Det. Jeremy Prudhome led to the identification of Demory Dewayne Logan as a suspect in the burglary. Logan was located at a residence in the 11000 block of Stoer Road where he was taken in to custody. Deputies also recovered all of the property stolen during the burglary.

Logan, 31, was booked into the Caddo Correctional Center for criminal property damage and simple burglary.