Wednesday, November 25, 2020

A Vivian man has been arrested for committing lewd acts against two home health care nurses, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

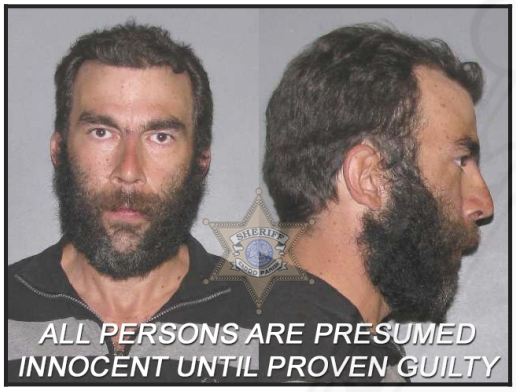

Andrew Moore, 39, is in Caddo Correctional Center charged with Sexual Battery, Obscenity, and Failure to Register as a Sex Offender.

The incidents occurred on separate occasions at a home on West Mississippi Avenue where the nurses were treating a resident. Moore did not live at the residence but sometimes visits there.

The first offense occurred in October when a nurse arrived at the house. She was outside when Moore stepped into her view and committed a lewd act in front of her. In November, a different nurse visited the home and was touched inappropriately by Moore, according to Det. Chris Daniel, who investigated the case.

Moore was previously convicted as a sex offender but had not kept his record of residence current, according to the Sheriff's Office.
