

CPSO seeks person of interest in burglary case

Thursday, January 7, 2021

The Caddo Sheriff's Office is asking for the public's help in locating a man who may have information regarding a recent burglary, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

The break-in occurred on Thursday, December 24, just before 1 p.m., at a residence in the 3200 block of Bert Kouns. The man in the attached photo was believed to be in the area at the time and deputies are looking for him now to determine if he can provide information in the case.

Anyone who can help identify this person is asked to contact Det. Matt Purgerson at 675-2170 or Caddo-Shreveport Crime Stoppers at 673-7373.
