Mooringsport man arrested for sex crimes

Friday, May 29, 2009
A Mooringsport man is in the Caddo Correctional Center charged with committing a sex crime this past weekend and another dating back to 1972.

Michael Wayne Harris, 54, of the 5700 block of North Hwy. 169, was arrested by Caddo Sheriffâ€™s Detective Terry Richardson after a woman reported that she was assaulted by Harris at her residence. Harris was charged with sexual battery.

During the investigation that followed, a second victim stated she was assaulted repeatedly by Harris from the time she was a small child until she was in her teens. Harris was charged with aggravated rape in connection with that report.

Harris remains under investigation by the Caddo Sheriffâ€™s Office.
