

Toddler recovering from burns, adults arrested on drug and other charges

Tuesday, July 6, 2021

Caddo deputies were called to a Mooringsport apartment over the weekend after the interior caught fire and a child was burned, said Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator.

Deputies along with Caddo Fire District No. 7 and North Caddo EMS responded to 306 Greenwood Street at 5:23 a.m. on July 4. A two-year-old juvenile at the residence received serious burns and was transported to Ochsner Health by North Caddo EMS.

Caddo Sheriff's Lt. Michael Gray said the origin of the apartment fire was suspicious and signs of illicit drug use were present. A joint investigation was initiated by the Caddo Sheriff's Patrol Division, Caddo Sheriff's Narcotics Unit, Caddo Sheriff's Juvenile Detectives, Caddo Sheriff's Crime Scene Unit, and the Louisiana State Fire Marshal.

Approximately three grams of methamphetamine, drug paraphernalia, and several firearms were seized during the execution of a search warrant. The following arrests were made:

Sarah J. Colgin, 27, illegal use of CDS in the presence of a person under the age of 17, cruelty to juveniles;

Beverly Ann Colgin, 61, illegal use of CDS in the presence of a person under the age of 17;

Randy Colgin, 68, possession of schedule II, possession of a firearm with CDS, possession of a firearm by a person convicted of domestic abuse battery; and Jonathan M. Colgin, 31, violation of a protective order.

The case remains under investigation.
