

Two arrested on drug charges following execution of warrant

Tuesday, November 9, 2021

Two men were arrested on drug charges following the execution of a search warrant at a residence on Egan Street in Shreveport, said Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator.

Agents with the Caddo Narcotics Unit went to 231A Egan on November 1 and executed a warrant following an investigation into complaints of drug activity. They seized approximately 473 grams of marijuana, 25 grams of crack cocaine, packaging materials, scales, and $9,242 in cash.

James J. Johnson, 50, was booked into Caddo Correctional Center for possession of crack cocaine. Fazon C. Jenkins, 29, was booked for possession with intent to distribute marijuana and crack cocaine.

