

Suspect arrested for possessing three kilos of meth

Thursday, December 16, 2021

A large-scale methamphetamine dealer was arrested in Caddo Parish following an investigation by Sheriff's Office narcotics agents and the DEA Task Force, said Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator.

The target of the investigation, James Frances Liles, 43, was stopped on Tuesday by Caddo Sheriff's patrol deputies in the 9400 block of Walker Road in Shreveport. During the stop, Liles was found in possession of approximately seven grams of suspected methamphetamine. A Taurus 9 mm semi-automatic handgun was also seized from his vehicle.

Later that day, narcotics agents conducted a search of Liles' residence at 108 Deville Place in Shreveport. During the search, approximately three kilograms of suspected methamphetamine was seized from inside a safe located in Liles' bedroom.

Liles was arrested and booked into Caddo Correctional for possession with intent to distribute methamphetamine, illegal carrying of weapons, and possession with intent to distribute over 28 grams of methamphetamine.
