Woman charged with stabbing husband

Thursday, January 13, 2022

A Shreveport woman is in jail charged with stabbing her husband during a domestic dispute, said Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator.

Suzanne Holcomb Adams, 46, was arrested on Jan. 11 and booked into the Caddo Correctional Center on a charge of domestic abuse battery with a dangerous weapon.

Adams is accused of injuring her husband as they sat in a vehicle in the 11000 block of Colt Trail. The two were involved in a disagreement and struggle when Adams grabbed a knife from the driver's side panel door and stabbed her husband in his right hand. He was transported to Ochsner's LSU Health for treatment.

Adams was transported to the Sheriff's Criminal Investigation Division where she was interviewed and arrested by Det. Demetrice Adams-Ellis. Bond was set at $50,000.

Bookings

Adams, Suzanne

So# 65922
Jacket# 65922
Dob: 01/16/1975
Race: W Sex: F
Height: 5' 6" Weight: 120