A Shreveport man faces additional charges after Caddo detectives uncovered more pornography on his electronic devices, this time not just involving children but also animals, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

Following a tip from the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC), Caddo Cyber Crimes Detective Thomas Lites discovered four videos posted on Fuller's social media account along with two videos and 10 images in his electronic devices. Deaundrick Fuller, 22, was booked into Caddo Correctional Center on Tuesday, July 26, charged with 16 counts of pornography involving juveniles.

Further investigation led detectives to 128 more files of child pornography and four files of sexual acts involving horses and a dog. This brings the total charges to 144 counts of pornography involving juveniles and four counts of sexual abuse of an animal.
