CPSO arrests Shreveport man with 70 pornographic images and videos involving children, dogs and horses

Monday, August 22, 2022

A Shreveport man is in jail after cyber crimes detectives found videos and images of child pornography and animal sexual abuse on his devices, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

Caddo Sheriff's Detective Thomas Lites said Jacob Bulter, 25, downloaded, possessed and uploaded numerous child pornography online. During the initial investigation, detectives found a total of 70 illegal videos and images on his devices.

On Monday, August 22, Jacob was arrested and booked into Caddo Correctional Center on 29 counts of pornography involving juveniles and 41 counts of sexual abuse of animals.

The investigation is ongoing and Butler could face more charges.
