Shreveport man faces 220 child, animal sex charges

Tuesday, August 23, 2022

Caddo detectives have found new evidence in a child pornography and animal sexual abuse case against a Shreveport man, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

Jacob Butler, 25, now faces 141 counts of pornography involving juveniles and 79 counts of sexual abuse of an animal.

During the initial investigation, Caddo detectives searched Butler's devices and found 29 pornographic images involving children as young as 4 years old, and 41 images depicting sexual abuse of dogs and horses. Butler was arrested and booked into the Caddo Correctional Center on Monday, Aug. 22.

Butler remains in jail with no bond.
