Winnsboro man arrested in Greenwood shooting case

Wednesday, October 5, 2022

The man who shot at a repossession agent and damaged private property on Tuesday has been booked into jail on multiple charges, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

At 10:27 am on October 4, the Caddo Parish Sheriff's Office started receiving calls from citizens about gunfire in the Greenwood Road area. A witness reported a shooting at the Red Dot Storage on 8890 Greenwood Road. Upon arrival, Caddo patrol deputies were told the incident broke out when two men exchanged fire.

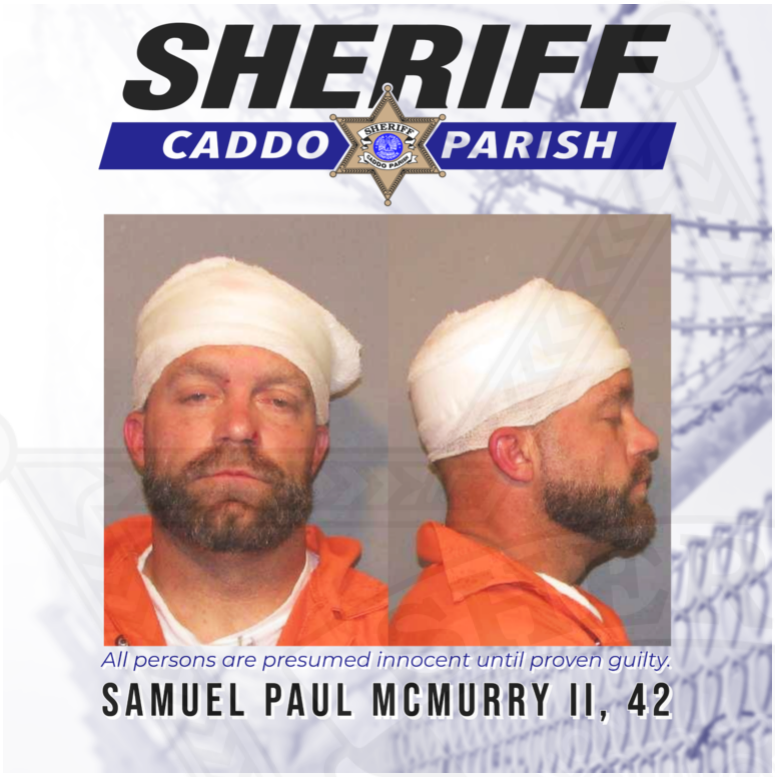

According to Detective Vincent Jackson, 42-year-old Samuel McMurry pulled a riffle out of his GMC pickup truck after a repossession agent informed him he was there to collect two of McMurry's 18-wheeler trucks due to nonpayment. The repossession agent used a revolver to fire back. After McMurry fired a second shot, the repossession agent pulled out another handgun and fired a shot which grazed McMurry's head.

McMurry then got out of his truck, jumped over a fence, went inside a home in the Greenwood Elderly Apartments, climbed out the bathroom window and ran back to his GMC truck which was hauling an RV.

A Greenwood Police officer asked McMurry to surrender, but McMurry ignored him. The officer fired shots at McMurry as he accelerated later crashing into the police car and a bystander's parked 18-wheeler. The GMC pickup eventually stopped after it flipped on its side.

McMurry was taken by Caddo Fire District 1 to the hospital for treatment. He was later boooked into Caddo Correctional Center for RS 14:37.4 Aggravated Assault with a Firearm, RS 14:62.3 Unauthorized Entry of Inhabited Dwelling, RS 14:37.6 Aggravated Assault with Motor Vehicle on Peace Officer, RS 14:95.1 Possession Of a Firearm by a Convicted Felon and RS 14:55 Aggravated Criminal Damage to Property.
