Pastor arrested for cyberstalking

Tuesday, August 11, 2009
A Marshall, Texas, pastor was arrested today for cyberstalking, said Caddo Sheriff Steve Prator.

Matthew Darren Wood, 38, of 37 Pine Burr Circle, was issued a misdemeanor summons by Caddo Detective Robert Greer after Wood turned himself in at the sheriffâ€™s Criminal Investigations Division.

Wood is accused of sending several anonymous, sexually-explicit e-mails to a 21-year-old Shreveport woman one day this past March. The messages made several references to the womanâ€™s breasts.

The woman had at one time attended Woodâ€™s church in Marshall.
