Shreveport man arrested for possession of animal and child pornography

Friday, January 13, 2023

Caddo Parish Sheriff's detectives arrested a Shreveport man for distributing child pornography and possessing animal pornography, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

In October of 2022, Detective Thomas Lites received a complaint against Joshua Rambin, 28, for distribution of child pornography, launching an investigation.

The investigation led Caddo detectives to Rambin's home in the 4000 block of Westwood Park in Shreveport, where he was contacted on January 12. Further investigation showed Rambin distributed two videos of child pornography and possessed a video of an adult male having sex with a dog.

Rambin was arrested and booked into the Caddo Correctional Center for 2 counts of pornography involving juveniles and 1 count of sexual abuse of an animal.
