Caddo Parish Sheriff's detectives arrested a Keithville woman for stabbing her grandfather during a domestic dispute, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

Carrington Harris, 22, of the 3900 block of Fountainbleu Road in Keithville, was arrested after an investigation revealed she stabbed her grandfather in the face following an argument over her hygiene habits.

Detectives said Harris and her grandparents began arguing after they asked her to shower. She began damaging property inside the house and then turned the power off from outside.

Detectives say while the couple was trying to restrain Harris, she escaped and retrieved a knife from the kitchen, using it to stab her grandfather. Harris then ran from the house and hid in the woods. She was located a few hours later, hiding behind a nearby home.

Harris was arrested and charged with one count each of Domestic Abuse Battery and Domestic Abuse Battery with a Dangerous Weapon. She is currently booked into the Caddo Correctional Center. No bond has been set in this case.

Harris's grandfather was transported to Willis-Knighton South by Caddo Parish Fire District 6. There is no report on his condition at the time of this release.
