Texas woman arrested for firing weapon at ex-boyfriend

Monday, October 2, 2023

Caddo Sheriff’s detectives arrested a Texas woman for firing a weapon at a couple in Greenwood over the weekend, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

Alicia Whitfield, 40, of the 1400 block of Ireland Williams Road in Waskom, Texas, was arrested after an investigation revealed she fired a weapon at her ex-boyfriend and a female companion at the Tobacco Country Bar on Hwy. 80 in Greenwood.

Detectives say Whitfield fired several shots from her vehicle after she spotted the couple in the bar's parking lot on Saturday night. They say she struck the victim's car four times, leaving two bullet holes in the passenger side door, one in a rear tire, and one in the back window that exited through the front windshield. Detectives say the incident was captured on surveillance video. Whitfield’s weapon and several shell casings were recovered from her car the night of the shooting.

Whitfield was arrested and charged with one count of Aggravated Assault with a Firearm and one count of Domestic Abuse Aggravated Assault. She is booked into the Caddo Correctional Center on a $500,000 bond. No one was injured in this incident.

Bookings

Whitfield, Alicia

So# 142289
Jacket# 142289
Dob: 09/10/1983
Race: W Sex: F
Height: 5' 2" Weight: 125