Caddo Sheriff's detectives arrested a Shreveport man on multiple burglary charges, said Sheriff Steve Prator.

The incidents occurred on June 12 when Charles Adam Philyaw, 34, broke into the North Caddo Shooting Club and stole shooting bows used for children's events, and a nearby cabin where he stole fishing equipment. Philyaw also entered a residential property in Mooringsport and stole a rifle.

Sheriff's detectives investigated the break-ins and Philyaw was identified through video surveillance from the North Caddo Shooting Club. An arrest warrant for Philyaw was obtained by Detectives Justin Sundquist, Matthew Purgerson and Jeremy Edward. There was an outstanding arrest warrant with Blanchard Police Department as well.

Philyaw was arrested November 28 in Blanchard and booked into Caddo Correctional Center for three counts of Simple Burglary, Theft of a Firearm, Resisting an Officer, and Possession of Schedule II (Methamphetamine).

This investigation is ongoing.
